Hey yo just close your eyes and I will be there right next to you let these damn bodies hit the floor before I do, painkillers are a addictive drug that is waiting to be release I don't give a damn, why is the world like this I just don't understand everytime I grab the mic I am spiting a verse or I am busting a rhyme real quick, going to war bringing my team victory I am gonna be the last man standing you could talk shit all you want but I don't give a fuck, just step the hell back from me just shut up I don't wanna hear it, this story is gonna end the right way.

those dreams that I had will be burning in hot steam flames,

burning my dreams in flames, my dreams are dead to me I don't need it I don't want it
no more,

because they will be burning in the flames of hell,

burning my dreams in flames.

All you people do is just talk nonsense all day your brain is gonna be hurting in a minute, because my lyrics are to hardcore for you surround it by liars is enough for me these standards can't test me now, when you hear those gunshots duck and hide if you can pumping the intense sound to the song to make it look dangerous, wake yo candyass up before I lay the smackdown on you here comes the pain taking a chance taking a real hard risk, because I am a high flyer run away from those blood sucking vampires.

flames,

burning my dreams in flames,
my dreams are dead to me I don't need it I don't want it
no more,

because they will be burning in the flames of hell,

burning my dreams in flames.
And your experience is taking the pain outta your body I am straight up ballin from corner to corner what's up with that, rising to fame with my hardcore rock and roll rap yo this hot new single that I got is gonna make you wankstas look weak, evil demons will be taking your heart and soul, so you better get ready for this booming to the sound of thunder is making us go crazy, oh yeah light this building up because it is about to go into hot steaming flames, bringing forgiveness in this world is gonna be really hard for me, because I will dominate until I get what I want.

flames,

burning my dreams in flames,
my dreams are dead to me I don't need it I don't want it
no more,

burning my dreams in flames.
