I love her to death when life gets hard don't stop just try to keep going trying to sleep I hope,

I can because everytime I close my eyes all I see is you so,

just come with your heart and leave the rest to me,

I promise you will be okay.

Don't break me from your true love,

it's over for us now don't break me from your true love, this will never go away so don't break me from your true love,

kept your heart inside as always don't break me from your true love,

yo don't ever change again because don't break me
from your true love.

What did I ever do to you when those feelings got hurt by somebody else wow I love you more than anything in this world,

don't feel good because of crying tired of trying yeah I'm smiling but inside I'm dieing.

Don't break me from your true love,

it's over for us now don't break me from your true love,
This will never go away so don't break me from your
true love,

I kept your heart inside as always don't break me from
your true love,

from your true love.

Loving is the only chance I have to feel good even though I feel bad,

I knew when I saw your face I be counting down the ways to see you.

Don't break me from your true love,

it's over for us now don't break me from your true love,

this will never go away so don't break me from your
true love,

your true love,

from your true love.
