I want your loving all your love is revenge so you and me could write a bad romance together, next time instead of hello I'll just answer with I love you.
Friendships and relationships, friendship is when you got friends and they are by your side no matter what happens, relationships makes us fall in love with the girl that we choose to be in our life forever and always, relationships and friendships. Yeah I'm tired of all this drama because nobody never ceases to amaze me, I miss her already but I just can't believe your gone.
Friendships and relationships, friendship is when you got friends and they are by your side no what matter happens, relationship makes us fall in love with the girl that we choose to be in our life forever and always, relationships and friendships.
