Yo I am just sitting here for hours and days waiting for your important call to come but wishing that I stop screaming for this death so sudden why is it happening to me again as a matter of fact anyway I see you leaving outta my dreams and heart but I still care about your feelings, because am the one who really love's you so after today just treat me the same as ya always did before everybody knows that love is so romantic and it ain't a damn special feeling to have because it does suck like broking tears, yeah am gonna forget those people who treated me wrong see all I want is someone to understand what it's like to have no friends, but now just pull the plug and watch me die alone for good. Gone away after me, nobody doesn't give a fuck about you no more gone away after me, I hate feeling this way for these sorry bitches out here gone away after me, I got no friends so I don't care anyway gone away after me, niggas can hate all around if they want gone away after me, I'm sorry for that drama gone away after me, and it ain't my fault for what had happen tonight gone away after me, gone away after me.
