right now because your word's don't mean shit to me

I am half away of reaching my breaking point if you got

That mean's you're just a worthless scum of trash guess what I am another,

Crazy psychopathic son of a bitch you ever seen in your life.

(Chorus)

I hate it,

Everything that I do is making me mad or the problems
I face in my life,

Is so hard for me to control myself with and now I am taking a stand,

Against those's people who are trying to take me down,

I hate it.

Just feeling like making more friend's or going outside

Walking toward's the grave looking at dirty bone's next

My own faith has encounter a demonic psychopathic

So this is for all you fuckers who dislike's me,

Still why am I turning into my hatred self again.

Guess who's leaving with a broking spirit without nothing else to regain.
