(Intro)

You better get ready for me,
You better get ready for me,
You better get ready for me,
You better get ready for me.

(Verse 1)

Eventually you always been sad and depress
But that whole mess, is fading into less
And it's about time, that you changed
Because you will decide one day, to show
Everyone a different side of you, that
They never saw before.

Don't let these emotions pour out of you
Because it won't have any room in your life, this is true
so stop now and make it better For your happiness.
Believe that you will try and
When you do, this hurt that they give you, won't have any effect.

If you ever get nervous or shy, don't worry
About fitting in, just let them come to you.
Never please no one, be yourself and say
What you got to say.

The people that do come to you are the ones, you're meant to be friends with. Don't try to impress anyone, Because all they will do is screw you over.

You inspired me to become a better person and you are a true friend for doing that. With every word you said, it made me realize that I should change myself.
Thank you for, Understanding me and taking the time to listen.

You are the next generation, so lead yourself to victory.

(Chorus 1)

I wish you can see me, for what I am becoming
I wish you can see me, for who I am
I wish you can give me a chance, to be me.
But yeah, those pretenders better get ready.

(Verse 2)

We are going to shoot through the stars, like airplanes.
Because I'm in the lane, to inspire you and you will shine bright in the night sky.

This is your chance, to show the world that you are capable of being
The best and you were born to become a champion. So,
don't let anything
Stop you from getting there.

Don't pay attention to them phonies, because one day
your name will be on the wall of fame, with your picture.
And just let your dreams; take you where you want to be in life.

Whenever you feel like giving up, your angel on the inside will
Make you stand up and be strong for what you believe
in. we are
All destined to achieve greatness and nothing will stop us, from Making it happen.

You are the next generation, so lead yourself to victory.

(Chorus 2)

I wish you can see me, for what I am becoming
I wish you can see me, for who I am
I wish you can give me a chance, to be me.
But yeah, those pretenders better get ready.

(Verse 3)

If you are being something that you're not, then You're just a pretender; yeah I am so hot that I came out my rotten shell to set an example.
You must have forgotten the genius hidden in me.

You must have never seen a person, so inspirational
That can get everyone in appreciation mood or on Their feet and make them soar in the lights. I'm about
To educate, and give you a sensation, so treat these Words like a dedication. You critics aren't laughing

now,
Because you see that I get so much admiration.

You are the next generation, so lead yourself to victory.

(Chorus 3)

I wish you can see me, for what I am becoming
I wish you can see me, for who I am
I wish you can give me a chance, to be me.
But yeah, those pretenders better get ready.

(Outro)

This is so true, because sometimes life is hard and we Struggle to make it better. But we always have people that
We can all rely on, that can help us get through the problems
We have.

If someone becomes disappointed in you, just let them know that You would do better the next time. Eventually you are struggling with making them proud of you.

But yeah, those pretenders better get ready.
