It feels like everyday I am walking with a corazon solitario all the time as I receive the beso de la muerte so still looking for amigo necesitado see I just wanna say that, me gustas pero no te quiero and can you please be my chica bonita wow am wishing I had a novia esta chica's sonrisa is so atractivo but if you do know I'm adicto, let mi decirle un secreto can you please be my only novia gracias for not liking or caring for me and all I ever wanted was to be perdonar, nobody doesn't know I am going loco for that chica in my class it's not okay when she doesn't notice me because I will cry all night then, your lonely mistakes is what keeps me away from you I hate when people don't shut up and listen to what I gotta say they be dropping too many cabrons, ya'll better know from now on I got my hispanic nation in my blood because that's what I represent uno dos tres viva la raza homie yo, I see real guapo chica's so just come get esta amor from me. It's us against the world, can't stop me from rising to the top it's us against the world, now look up and listen because it's us against the world, step up to the plate when it's us against the world, it's us against the world.
