"No Longer Mine"

It's all out on the table
Beside the coffee stains
We both sit saying nothing
Cause nothing can be the same
You say, why'd you bother coming
What did you hope to find

It was hard and it took time
To just put it all away deep inside
Made up my mind
You're no longer mine

Oh I was so messed up back then
Oh where do I begin
Well I was wrong side all the time
You don't know what you can find
When you let those demons in
You've got to fill them up again

And it was hard and it took time
So just go on your way and I'll go mine
Cruel for kind
You're no longer mine
