Cover me I'm going in you said you've got my back You promised me you'd take care of things if it really got that bad. The weather man didn't predict this mushroom cloud. For 20 years you took my money but what now

And when I needed you most, you just yanked out my entrails. I just looked at you, cause I was stunned when you raised my rates

Indemnify, they're placing bets on your life Indemnify, I'm damned if I try to fight back, no money back

Big brother's a sleep, maybe a riot will wake him up Just through me my keys and I'll start the truck Maybe we should try a brightline test
Oh sure, nothing will fix this mess

We've been sitting on the fence for way too long Some call it apathetic, baby just forget it Let's stick it to the man and prove that we won't take it anymore.
