Yo I couldn't even stay awake because I was going to insane almost losing my mind, everybody will become jealous somepoint in their life's got the desire of making friends, when nobody notice me it feels like I don't exist anymore but my enthusisam keeps me running, all of your anger won't take me down tomorrow, if the pain brings down my happiness and I don't got no remorse for all the bad things I did, so just take our path to sympathy.

Poser of reality,

I see all kind of fakes ya heard now poser of reality,

poser of reality,

I see all kind of fakes ya heard now poser of reality.
