(Verse 1)

I am blazing on the scene quicker,
Than the haze in my head,
Some of your gaze,
Got me really craze,
Every perfection is going,
Into another direction,
Their rejection is delivering this,
Painful infection to my heart,
Don't even cry if it ain't,
Worth trying for,
Each year that come's,
I will never show fear,
Spearing bodie's and tearing,
Through nigga's hard,
I am acting a fool but some
Bitche's,
Are just pretending to be cool,
Got so many kill's after
Proving my skill's,
It's a real thrill that these,
Motherfucker's can't chill,
There will be no more hope,
For you suckas,
If I have to hang,
Ya'll by the rope,
The voice of death,
Has given me another choice,
I am dropping some spade's,
For my average grade,
I got a lot of pride so there's Nothing else to hide,
My special feeling's has died inside,
I tried hard to get you people,
To understand me better,
Your life is trapped between the cage,
When my rage is fully engage,
Every stress is getting me,
Into another mess,
I am all fucked up,
Just running out of luck,
The pain is starting to get worst,

So just let my blood burst,
Through your face,
After our fatal brawl I was,
The only one who kept,
Crawling on the floor,
They never give me any devotion,
It's like you don't care about my emotion's,
Their lie's is another tragedy,
And our life has become a new reality,
I am provoking all of my absurdity,
Or deserving some derision efficiency,
Throughout each struggle,
So this is making me,
Ludicrous everyday,
You just never seem to have,
Any preposterous,
Inside of your lonely breaking heart,
I am always thinking of my infernal thought's,
These supernatural feeling's ain't worth nothing,
If you are not there with me,
Come and let me bleed inside of my eyes.

(Chorus)

I Put up with so much,
The pain will never go away,
You better be gone,
You never had any trust in me,
Yea life is really complicated,
For us these days,
Well it doesn't matter,
What side you choose,
Now It's over Because,
I had to put up with so much.

(Verse 2)

Life's a maze smoking this haze,
Living this life full of pain,
Going through my vein's,
What do I do just tell me the truth,
Shit get's deeper are u really a keeper,
You see alright listen it take's for me,
To prove to you sit there and,
Tell u the truth to look like a fool,
And just do my same shit,
And go to school shit running,
Through my head voice's
Going through wall's are
Caving in,
All I'm doing is shakin my head,
Wondering why this shit is such a mess,
Makes me stress you must not understand,

What pain is I swear god all I can do,
Is sit there and nod u push me to the point,
I can't stand you but really do you think,
That's what I wanna do,
It's just wat you put me through,
Do you really think I wanna replay this game,
If it's all like that u can do wat it do,
And I can say is fuck you too,
There wont ever be nobody like me,
That show you the affection and reflection,
So get ur shit right,
You know what it is I'm not scared of a fight,
So get hipp.

(Chrous)
I Put up with so much,
The pain will never go away,
You better be gone,
You never had any trust in me,
Yea life is really complicated,
For us these days,
Well it doesn't matter,
What side you choose,
Now It's over Because,
I had to put up with so much.
