(Intro)

Welcome to my world,

Ladies and gentleman,

Yo have you heard the news,

That I am the baddest,

Motherfucker to ever drop,

A rhyme,

They are starting to get,

Fed up,

With their self obsession,

Still some people,

Misunderstood my lyrics,

So don't ever set the bad,

Example,

And is everything is gonna,

Be ok.

(Hook)

We are doing it big,

In the city,

Still getting money out of,

Small banks,

But watch me as I crank this,

Shit up high,
When my common mind has,
Gone blank,
They see me riding,
In my tank,
So after I spit my following,
Rhyme,
You could thank me next,
Week,
So don't ever forget,
Motherfucker,
You know who's awesome.

(Verse 1)
It's all about self confidence,
So believe in yourself,
And keep on living the dream,
So don't hesitate just start,
Moving hater's out of state,
Why are you being so mean,
Even though your face is red,
As a crazy cherry,
Yes my unique flow is clean,
Like a berry,
Damn I can't never seem,
To lean,
Bitch don't look at me like,

You stupid,
Cooking up sweet beans,
If I see chicks in tight jeans,
Setting on this journey,
Where bets are made,
My dogs in the room,
And ready to chew,
Also zooming for some,
Danger,
Might stay bruising until late,
Night,
I am trap inside of the cage,
Trying to rap and still never,
Strap,
Don't ever take a nap,
Because your bones will,
Snap,
Stacking some money is not,
A problem,
It tastes like sweet honey,
My chain is shining like the,
Moon,
I will see these hater's soon,
Look at the ice around my,
Neck,

Let me say it twice before,
I roll the dice,
Never gotta think nice for,
A stupid bitch,
Nigger don't know I'm getting,
Paid,
Yeah that's enough said,
Spoked up some crazy,
Lazy Rhymes for you,
We are stroking hoes and,
It ain't a joke,
Instead of being broke,
I choke on my words,
Don't sniff but stay,
Poking at those chicks,
Just drop your guns and run,
Because it's only a matter of,
Time,
Before you get caught,
Damn on some shit,
I will strike you with one hit,
I will kick them straight to,
The curve,
If they talk that icky stuff,
To me,
Yes it's true I am drug free,

So don't fucking test me,
Because we are all fucked up,
Right now,
Yeah writing shit like this is,
My ambition,
Scanning for some evidence,
Ain't the fucking plan,
So come and join my clan,
This violence is gonna span,
More,
The goon's just landed,
Dragging your face down into,
Sand,
So why are you touching my,
Hand,
Even though that's what,
I can't stand,
Still we keep chicks stranded,
After the drama.

(Chorus)
If one open opportunity,
Passed you by,
Just take it and live the,
Moment,
So don't ever bring it,
Because we will take you,

Down,
It's in my blood,
Don't be afraid to deliver,
A rhyme
Because one day you will,
Shine,
This is what I rep.

(Verse 2)
The laws are explain to us,
And we got to follow it,
Always swinging into their,
Jaws,
I am too I'll but my skills are,
So raw,
We are so alive and just,
Fresher than five,
If you wanna ride with me,
Choose a side,
My lyrics are not whack,
When I drop the sack,
All these people do is turn,
Their back against me,
Stack the dough after selling,
Crack,
I'm packed up with so much,
Danger,

While a bitch is lacking in,
Their rhymes,
Lay slow tracks and grab my,
Jack,
Seeing ghosts of our,
Everyday life,
Behind those close doors,
Still overdosing my,
Obsession,
I watched as my drug flew by,
Got my own crew but it's,
Nothing new,
I already knew you niggers,
Was jealous of me,
Chewing through the itch,
And only a few turn me down,
I got none in my empty,
Handed pocket,
But I am done dealing with,
Your bullshit,
Waking up and realizing that,
People,
Who are fake don't even give,
A care,
I am taking back what's mine,

And breaking anybody that,
Gets in my way,
I am on top of the world still,
Making it clear for you pity,
Motherfuckers,
I am dropping so many,
Stains,
Blowing some brains up in,
The street,
There isn't nothing else to,
Gain,
Fuck those running lanes,
Sweeping body's down my,
Drain,
This is making me strain,
More,
The blood is raining on us,
I kept my hatred in vain,
After my love got slain,
Everything is turning into,
Pain.

(Chorus)

If one open opportunity,

Passed you by,

So don't ever bring it,

Because they will take you,

Down,
It's in my blood,
Don't be afraid to deliver,
A rhyme,
Because one day you will,
Shine,
This is what I rep.

(Verse 3)

Roughed up about,
Everything I could get,
Smashing up brains and,
Leaving your face trashed,
When I am gashing out my,
Eyes or slashing your throat,
It's just makes you wanna,
Bash someone upside their,
Head,
Is the cash making you crash,
This whole shit will splash,
Right back in your life,
Riding around in my freaky,
Slope,
So don't ever cope with,
A nigger like me,
Nobody thought I could be,
Too dope,

These bastards ain't tough,
Now,
Striping on each grind,
How can I get the tip on your,
Lip,
Your blood is dripping and,
I kept clips out of stock,
Hoes wanna slip away so,
Yeah I whip my style clean,
Hush little baby and flush the,
Weed,
Take a great look at me,
Nigger,
You are hooked on this bitch,
Until the night ends,
Or hangs with the crooks,
Everywhere I got it's cold,
So I gotta stash this gold,
Under my trunk,
The flashback of my past,
Is rolling fast,
Drowning futures are left,
Lasted in the vast,
You are so fucking tragic,
Still I am making those,
Bastards dissappear like,

Magic.

(Chorus)

If one open opportunity,

Passed you by,

Just take it and live the,

Moment,

So don't ever bring it,

Because they will take you,

Down,

It's in my blood,

Don't be afraid to deliver,

A rhyme,

Because one day you will,

Shine,

This is what I rep.

(Verse 4)

People are locked in cells,

Is that the hell they drag you,

From,

Selling half shells for your,

Swell grams,

No nigger or bitch is well,

After they fell down,

Smell this air and yell for,

Something,

Just ring those fucking bells,

So I can tell how it is,
Here comes another round,
Because people are just full,
Of shit,
These days my lyrics might,
Be wounded,
But the sound of our,
Negative influence,
Has found it's true place to,
Hang on,
So pull it together and grab,
Some encouragement,
Let me see all of you,
Motherfuckers jump up,
And scream this name right,
Here.

(Chorus)

If one open opportunity,

Passed you by,

Just take it and live the,

Moment,

So don't ever bring it,

Because they will take you,

Down,

It's in my blood,

Don't be afraid to deliver,

A rhyme,
Because one day you will,
Shine,
This is what I rep.

(Hook)
We are doing it big,
In the city,
Still getting money out of,
Small banks,
But watch me as I crank this,
Shit up high,
When my common mind has,
Gone blank,
They see me riding,
In my tank,
So after I spit my following,
Rhyme,
You could thank me next,
Week,
So don't ever forget,
Motherfucker,
You know who's awesome.
