Am a crusier depending on my weight when I get something it better be on my plate, throw twenty dollar bills to a trick when she gets naked tell her to stop acting like a hooker off the streets, if a nigga wanna hate he could just hate I don't give a fuck anyway but he ain't gonna get paid until he bow's down to me,

respect your damn king or die for your bad sins, everytime I lock myself in a prison cell my mind will just break loose like hell.

The rise of a king,

this king makes the rules now,

new kings are coming through,

bow down to me because I am your king,

we should crown a new king now, the king of the world has return,

the rise of a king.

Rubbing whip cream and oil all over this hoe getting a hot tan from the sun, if a bitch see me they know I got my adidas on everywhere I go, committed a homicide to a crime scene if it gets geeked up, wearing my big diamonds jewels to a party because am gonna be shining like the sun, in a minute seeing my reflection in the mirror so hard.

The rise of a king,
this king makes the rules now,
new kings are coming through,
we should crown a new king now,
the king of the world has return,
bow down to me because I am your king,
the rise of a king.

Touch her to see if she's soak and wet making a girl go crazy,

putting thoses nuts in a blender so quick like that, telling my servants to do my dirty work for me it's like I'm watching a brand new movie off the plasma screen tv, cashing my checks out of the bank stack them in a plie so neat like crimson in da sky.

The rise of a king,
this king makes the rules now,
we should crown a new king now,
new kings are coming through,
bow down to me because I am your king,
the rise of a king.
