It's quite a motion to step outside the cave
The crazy inner workings of a man
I guess you're on top again
Thinking how I'll take you there
My castle stands behind a man of stone
Guess you're on top again
Listen to the things you've heard and try to hold them in
'Cause I'm coming back from miles of long
The crowd broke off and left the shape in

So hot and pain 'cause feelings never change
A symbol's but a curtain around a man
Guess you're on top again
The doctors stay away
But my the dogs are mighty thin
So I'm coming back from miles of long
The crowd broke off and left the shape I'm in

And I with doubts so strong
With minds that aren't quite gone

I'm quite infringed 'cause feelings never change
The girl I'm chasing frequent I'm a man
Guess it's you on top again
Thank you for tonight my darling
The rhythmic comfort's in
So I'm coming back from miles of long
The crowd broke off and left the shape I'm in

And I with doubts so strong
With minds that aren't gone

Late at night sometimes I hear the patriotic rumbling little war cry
Or is it just the sound's a lot familiar turn the volume down it scares me

It's quite a motion to step outside the cave
The crazy inner workings of a man
I guess you're on top again

Has heaven seen the last of us or can we start again
So I'm coming back from miles of long
The crowd broke off and left the shape I'm in
