Pastrie cocktail nutrition in bars if it slip off butter better get busy when she work on the paper natural flavor get spicy on this,

distributed stones to pawn shops take gold getting stuff out my trunk until I get bold expose jeopardy, inadvertently shame hope peril infrequent coarse moderate desperate figures, tonight am a party at my homies path,

I'm so tired of life and the people in it and people need to get facts straight before they go accusing people of dispicable shit, it hurts me when people I care about could think that life's a game and it's unfair so I break da rules and I don't care, because I know victory will be mine one day just leave me alone before I do something about it, but may the angels lead you in.

Yo whatever you need I got that on me, hey what do these haters want,

what buster stop talking now, dang put up a good fight what,

I'm better than ever what,

what they gonna do if we come for them, what sucker can't beat us now then, what everybody gotta say something wrong, what I said let's do this, yeah fools get money but ain't that what's up though, ay what watchout because I be going crazy, hold on time is over now alright what,

just say it again what,
I'm better than ever what,
just say it again what,
hold on time is over now alright what,
just say it again what,
what do these haters,
just say it again what,
what.
