I see that you mean it
I see that you are serious
Have some faith in me like there used to be Come Sunday I'll be leaving
What do you want me to say
(Absolutely anytime)

Time was that you would understand
No matter what you would believe in
That was years ago and time's a thief you know
I never meant to be deceiving
What do you want me to say
(Absolutely anytime)

Where's the tenderness
Where's that girl I miss
Where's the sweetness that would send me flying
Bring her back to me, a grain of apathy
This life is yours there's no denying
What do you want me to say
(Absolutely anytime)
