I can't find my bicycle how did I get home
It hurts to hold my head to the phone
Where'd all my money go can you tell me did I lose it
Lose it all don't you know

Man I feel so used up
But if I slowed down would it all catch up

Yeah at least I see the sunrise
Oh it eats up my mind
Yeah just like her at my side
And by the way what's going on tonight

Think I gotta go to work Jesus Christ I'm late
Oh man oh man I gotta go
Thanks for all your help last night
Don't you worry everything will be alright

Yeah at least I see the sunrise
Oh it eats up my mind
Yeah just like her at my side
And by the way what's going on tonight

I could tell you about my life but
I'm not the kind to cry
I could she'd this ugly skin but
It hurts too much to try

Yeah at least I see the sunrise
Oh it eats up my mind
Yeah just like her at my side
And by the way what's going on tonight
