I bet you feel it's magic It's boredom setting in Fingers turn brown and that's where I'll begin

I'm in this sad position
I know I'm in the wrong
When I'm all screwed around I can't count all the friends that I've got

Cause when I'm out with the fellas
Drinking up like a storm
When we're all out together they all say
On your feet dance some more
They all say on your feet dance some more

I can't hold a candle
To all that I pretend
Running around the thought of my life going end over end

I bet you feel that it's righteous
But I've died one hundred times

Cause when I'm out with the fellas
Drinking up like a storm
When we're all out together they all say
On your feet dance some more
They all say on your feet so I dance

When we're undercovers we joke with one another
We can make the rules if we want to do
When we're undercovers we joke with one another
We can be the fools if we want to be in our hearts

Cause when I'm out with the fellas
Drinking up like a storm
When we're all out together they all say
On your feet dance some more
They all say on your feet so I dance

When we're undercovers we joke with one another
Rules can be the rules if we want them to be

When we're undercovers we joke with one another
We can be the fools if we want to be in our hearts
