Life is moving by so slowly
I'm tired of waiting for it all
Escaping just before the morning
It seems like time is heading out

I'm waiting
For a little kiss and tell
Baby likes to run like hell
Hoping for a quiet moment
Baby likes to get all of me
I'm waiting
Get all of me

My brain's gone down and Christ it's raining
I can't feel anything at all
Won't you stop your fool complaining
'Cause I can't really hear anything at all

I'm waiting
For a little kiss and tell
Baby likes to run like hell
Hoping for a quiet moment
Baby likes to get all of me

What I mean is I'm scared
What I'm saying is I'm scared
I'm scared

The wind's gone out of all my sailing
But I jump overboard with you
The happy times are here forever
Or for at least an hour or two

I'm waiting
For a little kiss and tell
Baby likes to run like hell
Hoping for a quiet moment
Baby likes to get all of me
