"Waste Away"

After all the cards you're sending me
So what's your name you've got a couple
Eleven languages for all to see
But can you run free with your friends like me

I feel so sorry oh so sorry for your kind
We're all together all together cool in your mind

Misdirects befriends a nicest kind
Stick my face in boiling water
What's in your annex boy will it conquer us
But can you run free from your demons like me

I feel so sorry oh so sorry for your kind
We're all together all together made up in your mind

Don't let me waste away
