Used to say, nothin ever comes my way,
Guess I'd have to wait another day
Here I stay, no surprises Things are different now, it got that way some how It's true just what they say You're always so much fun to be around

If you want me, I could be the one who makes you laugh
If you ask me, I will breath you in would you breathe in me
If you want it, I will build my whole world around you
If you want me to, around you.

Used to think, of how I was in between Never cared about anything
Or anyone
No surprises
That's all in the past
Time goes by so fast
You know I couldn't wait
There's only one more thing I have to say

If you want me, I could be the one who makes you
laugh
If you ask me, I will breath you in would you breathe in
me
If you want it, I will build my whole world around you
If you want me to, around you.

If you want me, I could be the one who makes you
laugh
If you ask me, I will breath you in would you breathe in
me
If you want it, I will build my whole world around you
If you want me to, around you.
