Can't sleep, tired all the time
With nightmares lurking in my mind
Need help, but get pushed away
A nuclear blast every fucking day
I got my friends just to keep me sane
With a war raging inside my brain
Boxed malls where I used to live
Now I get washed away, oh shit!

A too bad is what they say tough streets made you that way
No escape from a ticking bomb Red alert, the primer's on I wanna help, but I don't know how I can't seem to grasp that now
Urban rot, human decay
Now I get washed away

Washed out, washed up
A too bad never saved yourself
washed out, washed up today, we must do something now

Too bad never saved yourself….wash 'em away [x8] too bad, never saved yourself
