Blue eyes, I think of you, it's easy
Somehow I just thought that you'd complete me
Days will come and days will go without you
Never know just what it is I'm going to do

Look at me, I'm on the street
And I'm dancing, oh-whoa-oh
Look behind your sunglasses
Your eyes sing

See you with your arms wrapped 'round another
Makes me wonder why I even bother

Look at me, I'm on the street
And I'm dancing, oh-whoa-oh
Look behind your sunglasses
Your eyes sing

Don't you know you're what I live for, what I die for?
Heartbreak running through my veins just makes me
want more
Can't you see my tears fall when you walk out the door?
Don't you know you're what I live for, what I die for?

Too late to just let you go, I'm stuck here
Waiting for a word from you that sounds sincere Standing on a mountain top, I'm falling
Starry nights, they move me when you're calling

Look at me, I'm on the street
And I'm dancing, oh-whoa-oh
Look behind your sunglasses
Your eyes sing

Don't you know you're what I live for, what I die for?
Heartbreak running through my veins just makes me
want more
Can't you see my tears fall when you walk out the door?
Darling, you are what I live for, what I die for
