TONIGHT

We gonna pain the town, no more messing around

Tonight

I want to show the world, this love I found.

When i first laid eyes on you, Chills went up and down my spine

Couldn't find the words to say, Yet you still read my mind.

Now we have a date, I can harly wait

All day long i thought of you

Have a real good time, is my state of mind

This could b a start of love

Tonight

We gonna pain the town, no more messing around

Tonight

I want to show the world, this love I found.

At first I tried to paly it cool, I can make you worm before

I got trapped by my own game, Your the one I adare.

Now we have a date, I can harly wait

All day long i thought of you

Have a real good time, is my state of mind

This could b a start of love

Tonight

We gonna pain the town, no more messing around

I want to show the world, this love I found.
