Visit "Crying Over Nothing" on MotoLyrics.com

You, with their sadness in your eyes You've got places you can dream to if you'd only take the time
I've got the arms to break your fall
But you're sad without a reason and that's the baddest kind of all
Down, down see them drown

Why do you let it get you down?
Those empty headed heroes and those rumours coming round
Tired (of) all the people you despise You've got so much a-love inside you that you've never exercised

Down, down see them drown

You can't stop crying over, can't stop crying over nothing
You can't stop crying over, can't stop crying over
Nothing (x3)

CHORUS:

It's all right, so why care?
If you bleed for the light I will follow you there
'cos there's a sun kissed cloud over raindog holiday
...holiday

Crying over nothing (x6)
Crying overâ€¦!
