Red light, you're lonely, and nobody cares I'm tired of hanging round, I'm tired of this old town, and trying to run me up a million ways I want to take a trip, get on a rocket ship, I'll be a satellite in fourteen days I take a pack of paracetamol, then I can wait around and feel it all Or I can take some time to get a grip on my mind Take a walk outside, maybe just keep walking at a

CHORUS:

Red light green light, stuck in a hole,
Just might stay tight, I don't wanna know Red light green light, stuck in a hole with you And there's nothing you can do, you got a (something spoken ...) nothing new I got a grin to grip, I got a [walnut whip/ worn out whip/ I gotta want to win] [but/ while] all the monkeys throw their weight around Don't want to share your cup, don't want to beat you up, I'd rather wait a while and beat you down
I put a CD in my stereo, instead of taking the needle
And I can pull right in with the patience I'll win 'cos in an ideal world there'll be no time for ideas, got a

Whoaaaaaaaaa

Took a bit of time to see, I like being me

So put the clan in shock, get their feelings unlocked Get your wagon to a check in and it's adios amigos, got
