[x2]

Again again, I run away again this time it's different I swear I swear I promised myself that I'd find my home there's something out there waiting for me it's not another day older till I fall asleep so I'm wide awake till I'm back where I belong

[x2]

my life, my death, my heart, my head, my words, my breath, not anyone but me crooked smile broken teeth I only tell myself what I want to believe and I believe that I'm doing ok (ok I'm doing ok) I've broken a million hearts one by one and I won't say I'm sorry till I feel I'm done so put away the past and pray for another day

[x2]

my life, my death, my heart, my head,
my words, my breath, not anyone but me
