

The Wish You Weres "Apologies"

Hide a lot of skeletons in my closet got a lot of memories that haunt my head done a lot of things I'm not too proud of there's been a lot of things I shouldn't have said sometimes I think I owe this world a big ole' apology just for being, being me

There's a lot things that I coulda done better there's been times when I was pretty damn good there's been moments I coulda tried harder and there's been days I gave it all I could sometimes I think this world owes me a big ole' apology

just for giving, giving up on me.
