You've been hanging around the back of my mind waiting for me to realize that you were there reassuring words are so hard to find and I'm so confused and i keep gasping for air but now everything is so different my life is not what it seems i feel so alone without you in my arms but last night i saw you in my dreams it'd been so long since i had last talked to you and it felt great to hear your loving voice a million thoughts were racing through my head one at a time i think i made the wrong choice but now my life is just so different nothing is as it seems i feel so alone without you in my bed but last night i had you in my dreams i tried so hard to get it right time after time but it never seemed to work you made me feel like a had committed a crime a horrible crime you made feel like such a jerk but now I'm gonna try to move on things are looking up for me you can come with me if you want to or you can just hang around in my dreams
