

The Wish You Weres "On My Back"

Visit "On My Back" on MotoLyrics.com

I went shopping in a garbage can I found two moldy heels and a rubber band my life needs a commercial break because this life is to much for me to take my dreams are always ended when I wake (oh yeah)

well I'm on my back,
but at least I'm looking up

I was charged with unarmed robbery I was labeled a criminal mockery I set out to rob a gas station with some pantyhose and a water gun couldn't bring myself to harm anyone (that's right)

well I'm on my back,
but at least I'm looking up

I'm looking up, at the grime on the dirty streets I'm looking up, at the bottom of peoples feet I'm looking up, at the residence where I can't live looking up at the sky the picture's grown too big my troubled life seems insignificant (oh yeah)

well I'm on my back
but at least I'm looking up

Visit The Wish You Weres page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.