Just one more day
to pretend there's no pain and that nothing is wrong with my life

can i make it to tomorrow living in this sea of sorrow or will i be overcome with pain and strife well I'm fed up with this world you can blow it all away work all night and sleep all day

they slander me at will
and i can hardly pay the bills man theres gotta be better way

or will i be overcome with pain and strife

when i think about tomorrow and all the good times it might bring i try not to get my hopes up cause things just don't work out with me i still try to see the positive for whatever that may prove it's always nice to keep your dreams alive Wish you Were's Through and Through.

or will i be overcome with pain and strife

work all night and sleep all fucking day

lord there's gotta be another god theres gotta be a better way
