Something shines, the moon, I can not tell
It's brightness knocks you down
Your world, it spins around
I live for nothing else

One thing makes me climb up to the top
You motivate my cross
For you I give a lot

I live for nothing else
Come inside
Take your shoes off
I adore
Endless times we can explore
There's one thing you can be sure

Something shines, the moon, I have to go
The brightness takes a hold
This world I want to know

I live for nothing else
Come inside
Take your shoes off
I adore
Endless times we can explore
There's one thing you can be sure

I live for nothing else
I tore my room apart again
Just to feel close to you
So when two ages
Take my soul
I live for nothing else

One thing makes me climb up to the top
You motivate my cross
For you I give a lot

I live for nothing else
Come inside
Take your shoes off
I adore

Endless times we can explore
There's one thing you can be sure

I live for nothing else
Brightness knocks you down
The world, it spins around
The brightness knocks you down
The world turns upside down
Brightness knocks you down
I live for nothing else
