I've just had the craziest week,
Like a party bag of lies, booze and then deceit.
And I don't know why I want to voice this out loud,
It's theraputic somehow.

So I'm moving to New York cos I've got problems with
my sleep,
And we're not the same and I will wear that on my sleeve.
So I'm moving to New York cos I've got issues with my
sleep,
Looks like Christmas came early, Christmas came early
for me.

I put one foot forward and ended up thirty yards back.
And am I losing touch or am I just completely off the track?
And I don't know why I want to voice this out loud,
It's theraputic somehow.

So I'm moving to New York cos I've got problems with
my sleep,
And we're not the same and I will wear that on my
sleeve.
So I'm moving to New York cos I've got issues with my
sleep,
Looks like Christmas came early, Christmas came early
for me.

So I'm moving to New York cos I've got problems with
my sleep,
And we're not the same and I will wear that on my
