How high is the light above?
Is everybody thinking 'bout a thing called love?
My, my there's a light ahead
Is everybody waiting till the thing turns red?

Hey, hey we've a while to go
Is everybody ready 'cause the thing must roll?
My life ain't no ball and chain
It's a summer of forgiveness and the fall of pain

And the money's okay
And the money's okay

Hey, hey you and I agree
They burned our rivers and they burned our trees
My, my we've a while to go
Is everybody willing 'cause the thing must roll?

My life ain't no ball and chain
It's a summer for existence and the fall again
My life ain't no given up
It's a never ending story 'bout a thing called love

And the money's okay
And the money's okay

Did you ever wonder in your life, what then?
Were you ever hit by lightning twice
Or ten times thinking
All we do is live and die

If all we did is live and die
Then tell me about the birds that fly
Tell me about the summer rain
And evenings whispering your name

If all we did is die and live
Will springtime be there to forgive
Son of laughter, son of pain
Somewhere over bows of rain

I loved you more, more than anything

I loved you more than the driving rain
I loved you more, more than words can say

If all we did is live and die
Then tell me about the birds up high
Tell me about the summer rain
And evenings whispering your secret name

If all we did was die and live
Will springtime be there to forgive
Son of laughter, son of pain
Somewhere over bows of rain

I loved you more, more than anything
I loved you more than the driving rain
I loved you more, more than words can say

Did you ever wonder in your life, what then?
Were you ever hit by lightning twice
Or ten times thinking
All we do is live and die
