Ice Age is here, right in your town

Antarctica -- Antarctica

Antarctica, look what you've done

And I, I feel like you know what I mean

And I, I feel like you're losing your dream pictures moving, always the walls antartica, where are you now?

And I, I feel like you know what I mean

And I, I feel like you're losing your dream

No Day, no night, and always the sound

Ice my shelter, It's me that's found

And I, I feel like you know what I mean

And I, I feel like you're losing your dream

Nightfall's heartbeat, the street's in a mess

On reflection, the beach is endless

And I, I feel like you know what I mean

And I, I feel like you're losing your dream

One hearts bending, all out of shape

I say jump boy, before it's too late

And I, I feel like you know what I mean

And I, I feel like you're losing your dream

antartica - antartica

antartica - antartica

And I, I feel like you know what I mean

And I, I feel like you're losing your dream

It's my turn-turn, turn-turn to run

It's my turn-turn, turn-turn to run

It's my turn

antartica
