Do you wonder how it feels Out fighting for the deals
And all the sick games you discover Overcoming fame, trying to ease the pain
With just another one night lover

Don't you know your last years youth 77 you told the
truth
Don't you know your last years youth 77 you told the
truth
You told the truth

What you did was great and your fans relate
But your just not suited jackbooted
Your not yourselves your something else Go home, come back with something new

Don't you know your last years youth 77 you told the
truth
Don't you know your last years youth 77 you told the
truth
You told the truth

We ain't gonna stop
We may not break the top
But we'll die trying not crying
Nothing in the way, cos all we gonna say Is too true, that's why no one is crying
Don't you know your last years youth 77 you told the
truth

Don't you know your last years youth 77 you told the
truth
You told the truth
