Is it new, is it old?
Is it something Sahara can hold?
Is it you, is it me?
Is it something Sahara can see?
Jump in the middle of something you want it to be

Was it love at first sight?
Did you have to think about it twice?
What's the word, what's the deal?
Was it love in an automobile?
Jump in the middle of something you wanted to feel

We want love all over the world
We want love all over the world
We want love all over the world
We want love all over the world
We want love all over the world

Is it new, is it old?
Is it something Sahara should know?
Is it you, is it me?
In the future Sahara will see
We'll jump in the middle of something we wanna believe

We want love all over the world
We want love all over the world
We want love all over the world
We want love all over the world

We want love all over the world
(Daddy's okay, things are so efficient)
We want love all over the world
(Kids are alright watching television)

We want love all over the world
(Momma's okay, her dress is really bitchin')
We want love all over the world
(Everything cool when she's in the kitchen)
We want love all over the world

Want love all over the world

(Daddy's okay, things are so efficient)
We want love all over the world
(Kids are alright watching television)

We want love all over the world
(Momma's okay, her dress is really bitchin')
We want love all over the world
(Everything cool when she's in the kitchen)
We want love all over the world

We want love all over the world
We want love all over the world
