O Sole Mio?
ha huh ha
so high give me your love, imagination run wild and tell me your mine, i can never remember your name so high give me your heart hey guardian angels more light i'm falling in love and i want to remember the way mother mother can't you see everyone's in love with me
o sole mio
so far given the light of distant ages sometimes i can never be sure i can only remember today so now given enough i'll heat the stages how far is the mountain above where i wasn't a potion away
but only i know all the people in the square try to act like nothings there oh sole mio
I was a rainbow
so now give me your love in celebration of life and love, of fascination so now give me your heart my guardian angel no oh no, oh ho
something's wrong inside of me every time i try to say the words they don't come out
mother mother if you please life has got me on my knees i'm expecting someone's love to come and hit me blindside

mother mother, if you care tell me I am unaware of what I'm doing to your beauty and your holy love life mother mother if you please
And me i was a rainbow (o sole mio) repeat chorus over following:
so high give me your love imagination run wild and tell me your mine, i can never remember your name
so high give me your heart hey guardian angels more light i'm falling in love and i want to remember the way
so high give me your love, imagination
your name
the way
