Security (Everybody Feels Better With)

I know the feeling
I can see it in the mirror
It knows that I'm receptive
And it knows that I am here
It's always quite confusing
When I try to leave it home
I'll be walking going somewhere
And I feel I'm not alone
It is with me in the morning
It is with me late at night
It is always confidential
And it knows I'm always right
I can hide it in believing
What I'm doing is not a game
But the feeling keeps me feeling
That it's with me just the same
Something in the world seems right
And it is what I know
This is where I want to be
So this is where I go
Everybody feels better
look inside and see
(radio radio)
Everybody feels better
With security
I put on my coat
And omit my hat
Get a grip on my umbrella
I'm not looking back
Everybody's different
But we're all quite the same
And the feeling's comprehensive
And the feeling is the range
It is with me in the morning
It is with me late at night
It is always quite supportive
And it knows I'm always right
I can hide it in believing
What I'm doing is not a game
But the feeling keeps me feeling

That it's with me just the same
Something in the world seems right
And it is what I know
This is where I want to be
So this is where I go
(radio radio)
With security
I can tell you when it's there
It's crawling up my socks
And it's running through my hair
I'll be walking going nowhere
And I'll feel I'm not alone
The feeling's there to tell me
That it's with me just the same
Something in the world seems right
(radio radio)
Everybody feels better
With security
look outside and see
(radio radio)
Everybody feels better
With security
(radio radio)
With security
