When the sun beats down on the crewl cold ground in the city that has no name Where the clouds are black, and the cards are stacked and everybody knows the game

Where the ice can snow, and the cold winds blow the clouds come back for more And then the sun pokes through, the sky turns blue can't even remember what we came here for

Sing!

When the sun beats down on the crewl cold ground in the city that has no soul Back when the world was round, and she made a sound that suddenly took control

And now your blue swayed shoes haven't payed their dues hoping better sense would prevail
You try to turn the tide, try to look inside
Your looking for the holy grail

Sing!

Remind me what we're here for
So that's what it's come to this war

When your heart beats down on the crewl cold ground in the city that feels no pain
The only place to hide from the world outside is buried inside your brain

And you can pick or choose, you can win or lose everybody knows the score And when your loves embrace leaves a bitter taste keep coming back for more

Sing!

Remind me what we're here for
So that's what it's come to this war
Remind me what we're here for
So that's what it's come to this war

This war
This war
This war
This war
This war
This war

When the sun beats down on the crewl cold ground
When the sun beats down on the crewl cold ground

Sing!

Remind me what we're here for
So that's what it's come to this war
Remind me what we're here for
So that's what it's come to this war

This war
This war
This war

When the sun beats down on the crewl cold ground
When the sun beats down on the crewl cold ground

Sing!
