How much longer must I see demise?
Or can you see my past?
Oh
I wish I could have lived, without regrets
But I made, my mistakes so many times
Where do you go when the darkness finds you?
All I want is to see better days
And have my past washed away
All I want is better days

But where do I go? But where do I go?
I need a place to call my own
Where can we find hope? Where can we find hope?
I need you to show me the road

Why should it be this long?
Another reminder, of how much you've build
Remind yourself you've come this far, you've gone so far
Remind yourself you've come this far, you've gone so far

But where do I go? But where do I go?
I need a place to call my own
Where can we find hope? Where can we find hope?
I need you to show me the road

But where do I go? But where do I go?
I need a place to call my own
Where can we find hope? Where can we find hope?
I need you to show me the road

Why wasted this for me?
Show me where to go
Show me anything, give me everything
Show me where to go
Show me anything, give me everything
You keep pulling anymore, but you can see, destroyer
of all

Where do I go? Where do I go?

But where do I go? But where do I go?
I need a place to call my own
Where can we find hope? Where can we find hope?
I need you to show me the road

But where do I go? But where do I go?
I need a place to call my own
Where can we find hope? Where can we find hope?
I need you to show me the road

I need you to show me the road
