I'd rather die for what I believe,
Than live a life without meaning.

I'd rather die for what I believe,
Than live a life without meaning.
I'd rather die for what I believe,
Than live a life without meaning.
I'd rather die for what I believe,
Than live a life without meaning.

And now that I'm older...
And now that I'm older,
I'm finding out How,
What it means
To start over.

Well, it's never gonna be that easy.
I've searched and searched,
But the searchlights have left me.
I've tried to find a way, I swear I tried,
All I have left is you by my side.

So please take the time
To get inside my mind.

I've longed for the lights,
I've stayed awake, stayed awake.
Through the nights.
What if this is all I have
What if this is all that's left
What if this is all that's left
All that's left.

And now that I'm older...
And now that I'm older,
I'm finding out how,
What it means
To start over.
I never thought I would.
I'm finding out how,
What it means
To start over.

Now that I'm older,
I'm finding out how,
What it means
To start over.

So can you feel it now?
Beneath the surface where the shadows dwell.
You can't hide from the path you chose.
So take it in, take it in,
All the burdens of the world

I never thought I'd end up this way.
I never thought I could fall so far away.

So far away.

And now that I'm older...
And now that I'm older,
I'm finding out how,
What it means
To start over.
I never thought I would
I'm finding out how,
What it means
To start over.
And now that I'm older,
I'm finding out how,
What it means
To start over.

I'm starting over.
I'm starting over.
I'd rather die for what I believe,
Than live a life without meaning.

Meaning

Oh

I'm starting over.
