If you're not my blood, you are my bones
The only one I've ever known

You showed me how to be a man
You don't know what you mean to me
So many secrets run through me

Don't fuck with family
Don't fuck with family

I've tried to be a better man
For you will see that I've grown

I know we've both made mistakes
But you could never fail me
In my heart you're the one who's molded me
To be a man who could make you proud

Do you have regrets, do you ever look back
Do you have regrets, don't look back

The one I turn to
Nobody sees me as you do
You're always there

You taught me all I know
(You better me I know)
You taught me all I know
(You better me I know)

I'm sorry for the times I made you sad
I just want you to know that

I know we've both made mistakes
But you could never fail me
In my heart you're the one who's molded me
To be a man who could make you proud

Do you have regrets, do you ever look back
Do you have regrets, don't look back
Don't hold back, don't hold back

Many nights I laid awake trying to think of a way to say
But the words just don't seem to escape
They get trapped at the start but the feelings won't fade

So here's a song to say I love you
This is the one I hope will let you know
I don't need blood but I need bones
You are my home

I know we've both made mistakes
But you could never fail me
In my heart you're the one who's molded me
To be a man who could make you proud

Do you have regrets, do you ever look back
Do you have regrets, don't look back
I don't need blood, I need bones
