There's no sign we'll survive
There's no sign we'll survive
Let me out
They've trapped me here and I'll waste away
While you figure this out
This room won't hold for long.

The world that we knew has come and gone
If we can't win, this will be the end
The world that we knew has come and gone
If we can't win, this will be the end

I never knew, I never knew that this could happen to me
I never wanted this
That something I read about was more than a story
I can feel this taking a hold of me.
Will we survive?
If we stop this now, there's a chance to break away

This is our chance to break away
Break away
This is our chance to break away

Break away

They keep circling around and round these walls
Their faces are cold and lifeless
As they stare back at me
Their only thought is to devour me

This is our chance, can we escape?
I never knew

I never knew, I never knew that this could happen to me
I never wanted this
That something I read about was more than a story
I can feel this taking a hold of me.
Will we survive?
If we stop this now, there's a chance to break away

I've never felt the fear of death, until it reached out for me

I've never felt the fear of death
I've never felt the fear, the fear of death

I never thought that this could happen
That something I read was more than a story

I can feel this taking a hold of me.
Will we survive?
If we stop this now, there's a chance to break away
There's a chance to break away
There's a chance to break away
There's a chance to break, to break away

I never felt the fear of death
