I'm gonna wake the fucking dead with these words, It's about time someone stands up to speak their minds,
I won't keep my mouth shut any longer,
There's too many people speaking of nothing important,
Day in and day out reaching for those stars,
It's time to make something of ourselves,
It's time to grow up and become someone today,
I want to change the world with my words,
So who's coming with me?
I wanna change the world with our actions.
So who's coming with me?
You have no heart anything in this world,
No passion for anything on this earth,
This is my destiny, and you'll never take it away from me.
