You know me much better than anyone.
Er, everyone, for that matter
When I say I love you, you know the truth
And when I'll say I miss you
Baby you know that that's no lie

Take it out of context
Take it out of my head
You know where you stand
Take it out of context
Take it out of my head
You know where you stand

You'd never know where we'd go it's incredible
You'd never know where we'd go to be alone when
You'd never know where we'd go to be incredible now
You'd never know where we'd go it's incredible
You'd never know where we'd go to be alone when
You'd never know where we'd go to be incredible now
Be incredible now (be incredible now)

You know me and I'll state the obvious
Your the light, in my life
When I say I need you (say I need you)
You know the truth
Because my hearts not whole when it's not beating around you

Take it out of context
Take it out of my head
You know where you stand
Take it out of context
Take it out of my head
You know where you stand

You'd never know where we'd go it's incredible
You'd never know where we'd go to be alone when
You'd never know where we'd go to be incredible now
You'd never know where we'd go it's incredible
You'd never know where we'd go to be alone when
You'd never know where we'd go to be incredible now

You know me, much better than anyone or everyone in my life

You'd never know where we'd go it's incredible
You'd never know where we'd go to be alone when
You'd never know where we'd go to be incredible now
You'd never know where we'd go it's incredible
(Take it out of context, take it out of my head)
You'd never know where we'd go to be alone when
(You know where you stand)
You'd never know where we'd go to be incredible now
(Take it out of context, take it out of my head)
(You know where you stand)
