How about we take our medicine before you hit the bed tonight

Because you're my inspiration and you always know what's right

Be sure to take what you're given then use it to motivate you

Don't let it go away for all the things you want to do

You're so strong, I'm a brother who knows best
I'll put my life away if it means your life's at rest

I'll be your best kid from the very end
Making sure I take all the pain
Live tonight like there's nothing left to change
If we live how we want, there's nothing left to change
Tonight I'll rescue you from the flame
Making sure I take all the pain
Live tonight like there's nothing left to change
If we live how we want, there's nothing left to change

Abruptly kiss your mother gently to let her know you love her
It might be easy knowing that there's no one else above her
A second chance is what you're given, a chance to watch the sunrise
A time to watch a night fall, a time to raise your own

You're so strong, I'm a brother who knows best
I'll put my life away if it means your life's at rest

I'll be your best kid from the very end
Making sure I take all the pain
Live life like there's nothing left to say
If we live how we want, there's nothing left to change
Tonight I'll rescue you from the pain
Making sure I take all the pain
Live life like there's nothing left to change
If we live how we want, there's nothing left to change

I'll be your best kid from the very end
Making sure I take all the pain

Live life like there's nothing left to change
If we live how we want, there's nothing left to change
Tonight I'll rescue you from the flame
Making sure I take all the pain
Live life like there's nothing left to change
If we live how we want, there's nothing left to change

I'll be your best kid from the very end
Making sure I take all the pain
If we live how we want, there's nothing left to change
