We all need some thing to score got no future anymore

skin up for the Acid Man
skin up for the Acid Man he'll thrill your mind we got no future

skin up cos he's taking you higher today he's got pills that will thrill you man he'll let you taste them yeah but never waste them it's kind of hard growing up on the estate I'm drinking alcohol getting mashed stay up late muppets try harrassing me and taking all my shit enough body harm as we enter to the next lick robbing burning cars got the scars to prove it wait til you go out in your car and lose it 5-0 on your tails you better be watching enemies watch your back we'll be killing and coshing

we've heard all these things before

riots on the streets all my neighbours are fighting coshing scamming stealing we on the streets hiding public enemy no. 1 no-one can find us a 5-0 on the tail but they just can't catch up carrying a chopper as we do our business all the dealers and lovers and scammers and fiddlers safety is an issue so how can you stop us you're not gonna catch us if you're not gonna clock us skin up the spliff listen to this acid and weed gonna help you get blissed don't blink or you'll miss out on the spliff cos a million motherfuckers want some of this fresh out fresh out on bail fresh babylon on my tail will they catch me will they fail will we end up in the jail

yeh but never waste them

skin up for the Acid Man [skin up for the acid man] skin up cos he's taking me higher today [skin up for the acid man] he's got pills that will thrill you man [he'll thrill your mind]
yeh but never waste them [we've got no future]
