Lately I've had thoughts in my mind
And try to pass them by so you will notice
It seems like you like it when I'm shy
So let me compromise the way I act tonight

I believe in crazy things like I get mad again
A little complicated
So let me show you what I'm thinking
Do you think it's possible for you to read my mind?

I just may be suddenly crazy
When I think of you I don't know what to do
At least just try to read my mind
The work can be confused, you see my point of view

It's better than a psychic hotline
You can be the one to read my mind
Then we can work it out 'cause you'll figure it out
Just read my mind, it's much easier
Then we can work it out 'cause you'll figure it out

I know this is a mystery
And you will probably be a little spooked out
But oddly I'm seriously in need of a little ESP
Baby please, don't ignore it

I believe in crazy things like I get mad again
A little complicated
So let me show you what I'm thinking
Do you think it's possible for you to read my mind?
I just may be suddenly crazy
When I think of you I don't know what to do
At least just try to read my mind
The work can be confused, you see my point of view

It's better than a psychic hotline
You can be the one to read my mind
Then we can work it out 'cause you'll figure it out
Just read my mind, it's much easier
Then we can work it out 'cause you'll figure it out

If you humor me I'll do the same

Just you wait and see, I promise that
I know that we're working it
If you come checking it
I can hardly wait, you'll never be the same
It's kinda love I can't explain

I just may be suddenly crazy
When I think of you I don't know what to do
At least just try to read my mind
The work can be confused, you see my point of view

It's better than a psychic hotline
You can be the one to read my mind
Then we can work it out 'cause you'll figure it out
Just read my mind, it's much easier
Then we can work it out 'cause you'll figure it out
