(verse one A-Lexus singing) see it all happened bout a year ago we made a promise not to let it go this far but it seems i couldn't help myself because of the things in the past i felt for you i never let you know whats going on cause i never really let you hold me this way but now i'm coming to you honestly so tell me how you feel for me cause (hook performed by mercedes) boy you are the oly one you're the only one for me finest thing i've ever seen stay with me boy you are the only one your the only one for me finest thing i've ever seen don't you ever leave

(verse 2 mercedes) now that you now i have a thing for you i'm wondering if you feel the same way that i do these feelings that i hold within my heart stay friends for life and i hope that we never part out in the open how i feel for you to ease my mind that's what i had to do keeping it true baby i'm telling you to show you how you make me feel cause chorus (this time performed by a-lexxus) instrumental
